

The Workers' Library and Museum

Open Monday to Saturday, the Workers' Library and Museum offers a range of facilities to the labour movement.

- The Workers' Library – over 3 500 books, 60 videos and 40 periodicals.
- The Workers' Museum – a unique record of migrant labour and the compound system.
- The Zabalaza Conference Centre – affordable rooms for meetings, training and workshops. Kitchen available.
- Monthly workshops on topical questions facing the labour movement. Held 3rd weekend every month.
- NEW! The Workers' Bookshop, supplying labour and progressive publications, posters, caps and T-shirts at the lowest price. Available publications include Bikisha Media Collective, COSATU, Ilrig, Khanya College, Naledi, SA Communist Party, SAMWU, South African Labour Bulletin, TURP, Zabalaza Books and others.

The Workers' Library and Museum is situated next to the corner of Bezuidenhout and Jeppe Streets, in the Newtown Cultural Precinct, Johannesburg.

Queries: Tel: (011) 838-5672; Fax: (011) 339-8163. Workers' Library and Museum, PO Box 6214, Johannesburg, 2000, South Africa. E-mail: Workers\_Library@mail.com for enquiries or to be added to the Workers' Library and Museum e-mail list.